Section 5 – Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On December 9, 2014, United Technologies Corporation (the "Company") announced the appointment of Akhil Johri, age 53, to serve as the Company's Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), effective January 1, 2015. Mr. Johri will also serve as the Company's principal financial officer and principal accounting officer.

Mr. Johri currently serves as Chief Financial Officer of Pall Corporation. He has served in that role since May 1, 2013. Prior to that, Mr. Johri held various executive positions of increasing responsibility during his 26-year tenure with the Company, most recently serving as Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer of UTC Propulsion & Aerospace Systems from October 2011 to April 2013 and as Vice President Financial Planning and Investor Relations from May 2009 to September 2011.

Mr. Johri's compensation arrangements as CFO will include a base annual salary of $700,000 and an annual bonus target of 100% of base salary (consistent with the established target for the CFO position). Additionally, effective January 2, 2015, Mr. Johri will be awarded grants of approximately 137,000 stock appreciation rights ("SARs") and 49,600 restricted stock units ("RSUs") under the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plan. The foregoing award amounts are based on a Company share price of $113.00. The number of SARs and RSUs will be adjusted to an equivalent grant date value based on the difference between $113 and the actual closing price of Company shares on January 2, 2015. The SARs will have a 10-year term, and vest after three years of continued employment with the Company. The RSUs will also be subject to a three year vesting period. Neither award is subject to forfeiture in the event of death, disability or termination by the Company without cause. Mr. Johri will also receive a cash payment of $515,000 upon the commencement of his employment. This payment, along with the SAR and RSU awards, are designed to replace the value of awards Mr. Johri will forfeit upon his departure from Pall Corporation. Mr. Johri will participate in the Company's other standard employee benefit and executive compensation programs.

Upon the effective date of Mr. Johri's appointment, Peter F. Longo, currently Acting Chief Financial Officer of the Company, will resume his prior position as Vice President, Finance & Chief Financial Officer, UTC Propulsion & Aerospace System.

In connection with the foregoing, the Company issued a press release which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

UNITED TECHNOLOGIES APPOINTS AKHIL JOHRI CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

HARTFORD, Conn., Dec. 9, 2014 – United Technologies Corp. (NYSE: UTX) today announced the appointment of Akhil Johri as the corporation's Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, effective January 1, 2015.

Johri, 53, will have global responsibility for UTC's Finance function and for financial communications and investor relations. He will report to UTC President and Chief Executive Officer Gregory J. Hayes.

Johri returns to UTC after serving as Chief Financial Officer for Port Washington, N.Y.-based, publicly traded Pall Corporation, a leader in filtration, separation and purification solutions for customers across a broad spectrum in life sciences and industry.

Prior to joining Pall Corporation, Johri enjoyed a 26-year career at UTC in various executive positions of increasing responsibility. His most recent role was Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer for UTC Propulsion & Aerospace Systems, which includes Pratt & Whitney and UTC Aerospace Systems. Before that, he led UTC's Investor Relations and Financial Planning & Analysis groups. Johri also had senior financial roles at UTC Fire and Security, and Carrier Corporation, including 12 years in the Asia Pacific region.

"I am thrilled to welcome Akhil back to UTC, where he is highly respected for his strategic insights, financial skills, and his ability to communicate effectively with Wall Street and our shareholder community," Hayes said. "We look forward to Akhil's leadership as we continue to focus on creating innovative products and solutions for our global customers and delivering best-in-class returns for our shareowners."

Johri is a graduate of the Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad, and is a Chartered Accountant.

Upon the effective date of Johri's appointment, Peter F. Longo, currently the corporation's Acting Chief Financial Officer, will resume his prior position as Vice President, Finance & Chief Financial Officer, UTC Propulsion & Aerospace Systems.
